MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT : Newsletters

REFERENCE : DDA 76-0214, dated 16 January 1976

1. The following four publications are issued periodically within the Intelligence Directorate to relay news to the appropriate components:

-- DDI Newsletter, classified SECRET Special Handling Required, is published semiannually and designed primarily toward the interests of DDI representatives abroad. Analysts in the DDI also see it. Although it includes some CIA, IC, and NIO news, it emphasizes DDI programs, policies, personnel assignments, and other substantive news.

-- CRS Information Services Bulletin, classified SECRET, is published monthly and describes major general purpose and specialized files available to users of CRS. It also introduces the reader to other information services of possible interest.

STATSPEC

-- [REDACTED] Newsletter, classified SECRET, is published monthly, and includes policy, administrative, personnel, and substantive news to [REDACTED] personnel here and overseas.

STATSPEC

-- OER Highlights, classified SECRET, is published monthly and includes policy, administrative, personnel, and substantive news to OER personnel here.

2. If you need further detail or wish to see examples of these publications, please contact [REDACTED], Assistant to the DDI for Intelligence and Production, on [REDACTED]
